Andy Sealy is entering his twelfth year as Director of Bands at Hebron High School in Carrollton, Texas. Under his direction, the Hebron High School Band is a consistent Texas UIL Sweepstakes Winner (2004-2014), Band of America National Finalist (2014, 2015, 2016), and Sudler Shield Finalist Winner. The Hebron High School Wind Symphony was recognized as the Texas Music Educators Association 5A Honor Band for 2010-2011 and performed in February 2011 at the TMEA Convention/Clinic. The Hebron Wind Symphony also performed at the 64th Annual Midwest Band and Orchestra Clinic in Chicago in 2010. The Hebron Wind Symphony was awarded the prestigious Sudler Flag of Honor from the John Philip Sousa Foundation in the Spring of 2012. The Hebron High School Marching Band has earned six appearances in the UIL Texas State Marching including Silver Medalist finishes in 2012 and 2014, and top ten finishes in 2006, 2007, 2010. The Hebron High School Marching Band received the Sudler Shield in the Spring of 2011. In 2009 Hebron High School Clarinet Choir performed at the 63rd Annual Midwest Band and Orchestra Clinic as a feature chamber music ensemble.

Andy is a frequent adjudicator and clinician. He maintains professional affiliations with the Texas Music Educators Association, Texas Bandmasters Association, Phi Beta Mu International Bandmasters Fraternity, Texas Music Adjudicators Association, the International Clarinet Association, and Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia. He currently serves as the TMEA Region Band Division Vice-President (State Band Chair). Andy also currently serves on the John Philip Sousa Sudler Flag of Honor Submission Jury.

Andy is happily married to Karen for 19 years. Karen is an administrator in the Division of Learning and serves on the John Philip Sousa Sudler Flag of Honor Submission Jury.

Dimitrios Icossipentarhos is Associate Director of Bands for Hebron High School in Carrollton, Texas. His responsibilities include conducting the Symphonic Band and Saxophone Choir, while also assisting with the Marching Band, Wind Symphony, and Concert Band. Originally from Austin, Mr. Icossipentarhos holds Bachelor of Music degrees in music education and music performance from Texas Tech, he performed with numerous ensembles, studied saxophone with David Dees, conducting with Dr. Sarah McKoin, and had an educational philosophy shaped through interacting and coursework with Dr. Keith Dye. Prior to his appointment at Hebron, Mr. Icossipentarhos served as Associate Director of Bands at both Liberty High School in Frisco ISD and Curtistene S. McCowan Middle School in DeSoto ISD. Bands under his direction have consistently received Sweepstakes Awards in University Interscholastic League competition for Concert and Marching Bands.

Mr. Icossipentarhos’ professional affiliations include the Texas Music Educators Association, the Texas Bandmasters Association, Phi Lambda Kappa, and Kappa Kappa Psi. Dimitrios resides in Frisco with his wife, Amy, who is also extensively involved in music education serving as the Director of Bands at Westwood Junior High in Richardson ISD.

J.P. Wilson is in his 2nd year as Assistant Director of Bands for Hebron High School in Carrollton, Texas. Mr. Wilson is a Carrollton native and graduated from Creekview HS. He went on to graduate from Texas Christian University with a BM in Music Education and was a member of the trumpet studio under Dr. Jon Burgess. While at TCU he performed with the Trumpet Ensemble, Symphonic Band, Wind Symphony, Basketball band, and Jazz Ensemble under the direction of Dr. Jon Burgess, Brian Youngblood, Bobby Francis, and Curt Wilson. J.P. was also a two-year Drum Major for the Horned Frog Marching Band. He has performed at Texas Motor Speedway, the International Trumpet Guild, and for the American Bandmasters Association. After graduation from TCU, Mr. Wilson went on to be the Associate Director of Bands at Legacy High School in Mansfield, Texas from 2010-2013.

J.P. is an active leadership clinician. He has taught the leadership and Drum Major camp at the University of Texas at Arlington. He also teaches the Drum Major camp at Idaho State University. His professional affiliations include the Texas Music Educators Association, the Texas Bandmasters Association, and Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia.

Dr. Noel Wallace holds a bachelor degree in music from the Eastman School of Music, a masters degree in music from Penn State University, and a doctorate of musical arts degree from the University of North Texas. Additionally, Dr. Wallace holds a performance certificate from the Rotterdam Conservatory, in The Netherlands and a high school diploma in performance from the Interlochen Arts Academy. His teachers include Jan and Vern Kagarice, Jeanie Little, Tom Riccobono, John Marcellus, Don Harry, Ralph Sauer, Mark Lusk, and Ben van Dijk.

As an educator Dr. Wallace currently holds an adjunct teaching position at the University of North Texas and operates a large private studio in the Hebron cluster of the Lewisville Independent School District. Previous college teaching positions include adjunct positions at Brookhaven College and Texas Woman’s University.

Dr. Wallace has performed with a variety of classical, jazz, and chamber ensembles but has a passion for trombone choir. As member of the Eastman Trombone Choir and Bionic Bones he has appeared at three International Trombone Festivals, once as a Remington Trombone Choir Competition winner and once as a Kai Winding Jazz Trombone Ensemble Competition winner. As a member of the Penn State Trombone Choir he appeared at the Eastern Trombone Workshop in Washington D.C. and the Music Educators National Conference in Cleveland, Ohio. While a member of the Rotterdam Conservatory Trombone Choir, Dr. Wallace performed a featured performance at the 2007 Slide Factory hosted by the New Trombone Collective in The Netherlands. While a graduate student at UNT he participated in many performances with the top trombone choir.

Dr. Wallace’s current scholastic/research interests include; health and wellness for brass players with an emphasis on the prevention and eradication of FTSD (focal task specific dystonia) and improving the pedagogical and methodological approaches to beginner instruction of brass players. Additionally, Dr. Wallace also serves as the Exhibits Director for the International Trombone Festival.

Scott Baldwin is the Percussion Coordinator/Assistant Band Director for the Hebron HS Cluster (Arbor Creek MS, Creek Valley MS, Killian MS and Hebron HS) in Carrollton, TX. He received a BM and MAT in Music Education from the University of Louisville, and a MM in Percussion Performance from the University of Florida. He marched with the Madison Scouts Drum and Bugle Corps (’98), and Pioneer Drum and Bugle Corps (’95-’97).
